THAT INCH PARTY.

The Inch Party given by the King's Daughters, of the Forks of Elkhorn, was a decided success. Every one enjoyed the occasion very much. Amount cleared was $54.00. We wish to thank the merchants of Frankfort and Switzer for their kindness in contributing so liberally.

Our leader, Mrs. Howard Black, has made successful every entertainment planned. Mrs. G. L. Hansen measured each one as they came in at the door. Mrs. Albert Hockensmith had her usual place as treasurer. Mrs. Nellie S. Cox read the guest's palms, much to the satisfaction of all. Miss Carrie Brook presided at the post office and saw that each one received a delightful letter. Then came the fish pond, the life of the entertainment, as their catch was great. Mesdames Trimble and Taylor were there to see that each one received something on their poles. Last but not least, was the palatable lunch, served by Mesdames Black, Hansen, Macklin, Jeffers, Belle, Coffey, Holm and Perry. Miss Daisy Hockensmith and Bettie Bowen attended to the finish tables, and Misses Williams, Steadman and Sallie Suter were there, ever ready to show each guest the various amusements and conduct them to the lunch room.

LOOKER ON.

HANDSOME COUNTRY HOME BURNED.

The handsome country home of the late Mr. J. Nev. Blakenore (now owned by Mr. Ezra Rippey) was burned to the ground on Tuesday afternoon. The loss amounted to some $6,000, happily fully insured.

Mr. Rippey had just returned from a visit to Louisville in time to assist in saving the contents of the lower floor. Everything else was destroyed.

It took hard work to save the smoke house and other outbuildings.

ORGANIZED.

The newly elected Republican County Committee met on Monday last, and organized by the election of Mr. Geo. L. Barnes as Chairman and Mr. Grant L. Roberts as Secretary.

OUTSIDER WON DERBY.

A California horse, considered a rank outsider, with odds of 15 to 1, won the famous Kentucky Derby, at Louisville, on Monday last, in the presence of one of the largest crowds ever on the grounds.

Dr. Weaver's Treatment.
Syrup for the blood; Cerate for skin eruptions.

ACCIDENTALLY SCALED.

Mr. George Chapman, one of the distillers at the Kentucky River and O. F. C. distilleries, was adjusting a valve at the distillery, on Sunday, when hot water and mud were thrown on his face and hands scalding him pretty badly. He was laid up for several days.

THE STORY OF A CRISIS.

How a great crisis in American political history was met, and threatening civil war averted, is dramatically described by Joseph M. Rogers in a clear and non-partisan narrative of "How Hayes Became President." In the May McClure's. Very little has been written on the Hayes-Tilden controversy and the extra-constitutional means employed for its settlement by the Electoral Commission, except in partisan discussion. In preparing his article, Mr. Rogers has had access to new material and presents interesting facts hitherto unpublished, giving his work the value of both freshness and lack of bias.

Mr. Rogers outlines the events leading up to the controversy, describes the complications following the fight in Congress, the public excitement, the bargain which finally resulted in the selection of the commission, its decision and the far-reaching results of it. Among the latter were the withdrawal of Federal troops from the South, the turning over of State offices in the South to the Democrats and the passing of a law for canvassing the vote in future elections so as to prevent a repetition of the contest. Many political animosities and bitterness were engendered in the contest, which affect the whole course of political history.

Mr. Rogers concludes with this statement: "Tilden and Hendricks received a clear plurality of the popular vote, even as counted by the commission. Who were chosen presidential electors in the three disturbed states on a fair vote and honest count, even as it was cast, is known to no one and never can be known."

RECEIVING WOOL.

Mr. H. G. Davis will begin to receive wool at the L. & N. Depot on Wednesday, May 18. Those having dealings with him in that line should bear this in mind.

DANGEROUS WOUND.

Mr. Bernard G. Graham, Superintendent of the Cedar Brook Distillery, near Tyrone, was bitten by a supposed mad dog on Wednesday, through the hand.

Mr. Graham had recently been transferred to that distillery by the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Co., from the J. & J. M. Saffell distillery at this place.

THANKS.

We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the dedication of the newly erected Chapel of Cardome Academy, Georgetown, Ky. The ceremonies will transpire on Thursday, May 19th, 1904, at 9:30 a. m. Rt. Rev. C. P. Maes, Bishop of this Diocese, officiating. The sisters will please accept our thanks. We regret exceedingly our inability to attend.

SHUTTING DOWN.

Quite a number of distilleries in this section are shutting down for the season. Jno. Cochran & Co. ran out on Tuesday last. Messrs. Labrot & Graham made their last mash on Tuesday last and will run out today. Several others will soon follow.

A CURE FOR PILES.

"I had a bad case of piles," says G. E. Carter, of Atlanta, Ga., "and consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. I purchased a box and was entirely cured. It is splendid for piles giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled for its healing qualities. Eczema and other skin diseases, also sores, cuts, burns and wounds of every description are quickly cured by it. Sold by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

ELECTED NEW SUPERINTENDENT.

At the meeting of the Board of Education, on Tuesday night, Mr. Hugh C. McKee, of this city, was elected Superintendent of the City Schools, to succeed Prof. Sam'l L. Frogge, who has so successfully conducted the schools for the last five years. Prof. McKee has been conducting the Frankfort Business College for several years.

READY FOR GUESTS.

Mrs. Hannah Hord Hardin and Mrs. W. M. Little, at No. 3528, Pine street, St. Louis, Mo., are prepared to entertain their Frankfort friends who may attend the St. Louis World's Fair. Special rates made for parties. Write them. They furnish Kentucke kytting.

WHEN THE SAP RISES

Weak lungs should be careful, coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fonger, of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by J. W. Gayle.

BROUGHT BACK.

Officer H. Davis Harrod returned Sunday night from Hamilton, Ohio, where he went to bring back one Garland Johnson, who is charged with having stolen some clothing from a boarder at the Hayden House, several weeks since. He brought his prisoner with him and had no trouble in discharging his duty. He says the local officers both at Hamilton and Cincinnati treated him with every courtesy.

LATER—Upon the examining trial the prosecuting witnesses stated that they were mistaken as to the man.

CAPTURES BALD EAGLE.

Mr. Atilla Green was out on his place, near Farmandale, on Saturday, when he found a Bald Eagle trying to catch a lamb. Mr. Green got his gun and wound and captured the big bird, brought him to the city, on Monday, and placed him on exhibition in the show window of Mr. Howard Johnson's billiard parlors. The old fellow is a very fierce and intractable bird.

This bird, or another like it, or it may be, a pair of them, have been seen for some time in the woods near where this one was captured.

A RUNAWAY BICYCLE.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at all druggists.

ELK'S CAFE OPENS.

The new restaurant and cafe of Messrs. Dehoney & South, on Main Street, was opened for business on Tuesday last. It is elegantly fitted up with beautiful new tables, chairs, etc., and is as neat and clean as any one could desire. Delightful meals are served at as reasonable rates as the market will admit of.

SENT TO ASYLUM.

One Mattie Lewis, a colored convict, confined in the local prison, was tried under a writ de lunatico inquirendo, on Wednesday, before Judge J. H. Polsgrove, and ordered sent to the asylum at Lakeland.

KING'S DAUGHTERS STRAWBERRY SUPPER.

The King's Daughters have arranged to give a Strawberry Festival and Supper the latter part of this month. The exact date and place will be given later on.

These good ladies are straining every nerve to take care of their hospital and to build the new one upon their recently purchased lot. They deserve and should receive the hearty support of every one in our city.

NOT A SICK DAY SINCE.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what R. E. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c. at all druggists.

UNIFORMED.

The motor men of the Frankfort & Suburban Railway have donned their new and handsome uniforms, caps, etc. This is as it should be, as it enables those who ride on the road to know who to apply to as officials.

THE FRANKFORT CIVIC LEAGUE.

A few words in regard to the organization known as "The Frankfort Civic League," will be of interest to all citizens having at heart the cleanliness, beauty and prosperity of our city.

The Civic League was organized last October, with sixteen names on its membership list.

The object of the society is the improvement of Frankfort in health, cleanliness, beauty and prosperity; all members agreeing to do what they can to promote the objects of the society. Meetings are held in October, January, April and July of each year.

The League now has sixty-four members.

At the April meeting the following report was read:

"Thus far, our efforts in behalf of civic reforms have apparently been without results, but the committee begs the League not to feel discouraged for we find that a real and increasing interest in our work has been aroused in our citizens of all ages and classes. This is all that we had hoped to do in so short a time."

"Our request for 'your name and twenty-five cents,' has been promptly and cheerfully met, and we now have quite a respectable number of names on our list of membership. Before the close of the year we hope to have all our people pledged to assist in this important work."

"Street cleaning seems to be uppermost in most people's thoughts, and we may well make it our principal work for the next three months. Each town must solve that question as best it may. We must not be disheartened when we read of the beautiful New England villages. We can never be as clean as they are—we have our soft coal dust, our limestone dust, our lack of money, and, above all, our careless habits against us. But we can train ourselves to feel a personal responsibility for each unsightly ash heap, the tin cans, and the garbage. What is best to do with the latter has not been satisfactorily settled by any city. Can not some bright mind in our community solve the vexed question? Any suggestion may be sent to the president, and will be thankfully received and reported."

"Several of our merchants have promised that in their journeys to other cities they will have our work on their minds, will notice what is done to keep streets clean and beautiful, and will report the result of their observation to us."

"Our secretary has written several places in regard to waste paper receptacles for the street corners. Such receptacles seem to be absolutely necessary, and we trust in a short time to find something suitable for the purpose."

"Have you noticed that the butchers have removed the meats from the racks in front of their shops? They did it instantly and cheerfully."

"The council has ordered that all obstacles be removed from the sidewalks."

"We have a new health officer, Mr. Roy Waters, who, though a very young man, is in earnest about his work, and promises to look after the alleys, the back yards and the sewers. He is now at work in South Frankfort, and has already reported and served warrants on sixty persons, for untidy back yards. What a comment on our housekeeping!"

"At our next meeting, in July, we believe we can report real progress along several lines."

"In the meantime keep our motto in mind—A long pull, a strong pull and a pull all together."

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

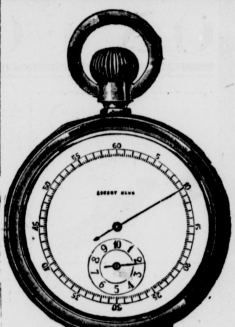

Right Eminent Commander Geo. A. Lewis, of Frankfort; Eminent Grand Standard Bearer Joe. Ewalt, of Paris; Eminent Commander Dr. Lapley, of Paris; Eminent Commander Thos. BEAUTIFUL STORY.

Miss Maria Lindsey, daughter of Mr. John B. Lindsey, of this city, has become quite an authoress.
She has a beautiful story, entitled "Hearts and Clubs," which is published in Leslie's Magazine for May. Miss Lindsey is not only an elegant and forceful writer, but she is a musician of very considerable merit. We wish our fair friend great success in both lines of labor.

RELIEF FOR TOBACCO GROW- ERS.

Organized Farmers the Power to Dethrone the Tobacco Trust.

We are in receipt of official notice
from the headquarters of the American Society of Equity, at Indianapolis, Ind., that this society will send organizers into the tobacco growing districts to organize the farmers to demand and receive a profitable price for their 1904 crops.
The work will begin in Western Kentucky. Four meetings are already called at Morganfield, Union Co., April 16th; Dixon, Webster Co., April 18th; Henderson, Henderson Co., April 20; Owensboro, Daviess Co., April 22. James W. Lee, of Morganfield, is in charge of arrangements for these meetings. Other meetings will be held in rapid succession until the growing districts in Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana, Ohio, Virginia, North Carolina, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, New York and Wisconsin are organized.

The plan of this farmers' society is different from any former one.
The American Society of Equity
proposes to organize farmers to regulate markets and thus compel the price. It believes (knows) the world must have what the farmers grow—all food and clothing supplies. It organizes the farmers and teaches them how to market their crops over the whole year instead of dumping them soon after harvest
so that other people hold and manipulate them. It believes in farm storage rather than city storage.
It proposes to make the demand seek the supply instead of the supply overwhelming the demand.

It knows, under the old system,
that when the year is around all of the crops are consumed at prices
made by non-producers—speculators, packers, food trusts and middlemen—without any reference to what it cost to produce them. It believes, under the new system of controlled marketing and price making on the farm, that there will be even greater consumption, because prices will be equitable to the producers and consumers, and that when the year is around, the granaries and storehouses will be empty, and the indispensable goods of the farmers will have been sold at the farmers' price.

This is not a society for tobacco growers alone, but it is for every crop grown by farmers; one society for all agricultural interests. It is organizing in every State in the Union, also in Canada. It is the society that fought for dollar wheat and won. It proposes to carry on its work until every crop brings a profitable price, and until the grower takes his profit first, before the middlemen or trusts can touch his fine products, until farming is elevated to an equality for profits with the best business in the country, and farmers come to the front where they belong.

In this call to farmers to organize, special stress is placed on its importance to small cities and country towns. Therefore, the merchants are invited to co-operate to the building up of agriculture,
which means prosperity for all.
Merchants want farmers to get good prices, in fact, farmers can not prosper without the merchants prosper, hence their interests are mutual. If the farmers and merchants join in this movement to rescue the tobacco industry and put it on more than its old time prosperous basis, it will be the greatest industrial event in the history of the localities affected.

SELF-EXPLANATORY!

Forest City, Ark., May 1, 1904.

Mr. John B. Dryden,
(The Old Man of the Call),
Frankfort, Ky.

Dear Sir:

I understand that Faust's Minstrels will play Frankfort some time soon and I would like to say for the benefit of all that I had the pleasure of seeing the show in Little Rock, Ark., last week, also at Jonesboro, Ark., this past week, and they turned people away. I can also say that it is one of the best Minstrels I have witnessed in three years.

And I felt very proud to introduce Will Pattie to my friends as being one of my home boys. His voice is fine, in fact they have no other kind, and I will be more than glad to know that they will find a packed house in Frankfort in honor of Will Pattie, and I assure you who will be of the same opinion
as I am.

Yours very truly,

CHAS. E. LONG.

Faust's Superb Minstrels will be the attraction at Capital Theatre to-night, May 7. Seats on sale at

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction,
"Never put off 'till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day." That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy
be Dr. Roscher's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

FRANKFORT, MAY 7, 1903

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republicans of the State held one of the largest and most enthusiastic conventions ever held by that party, on Tuesday last, in Louisville.

Contrary to expectations, there was no fight, and the contending factions, as represented by Gov. W. O. Bradley and Hon. John W. Yerkes were brought together and friendly relations established, these two distinguished leaders pleading for harmony and clasping hands upon the stage, pledging themselves to let bygones be bygones.

Resolutions endorsing the administration of President Roosevelt and instructing the delegates to cast the vote of Kentucky for his nomination were adopted amid great enthusiasm.

Gov. W. O. Bradley, Hon. Geo. W. Long Col. Richard P. Ernst and Dr. E. E. Underwood were selected as delegates from the State-at-large. A new State Central Committee was selected with Col. R. P. Ernst as Chairman.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S POSITION.

McClure's Magazine for May prints a most interesting excerpt from a letter written by President Roosevelt to Ray Stannard Baker, commenting on his discussion of "Great Labor Conflicts," in that magazine, in which the President defines his attitude toward capital and labor as follows:

"I believe in corporations. I believe in trade unions. Both have come to stay and are necessities in our present industrial system. But where in either one or the other there develops corruption or mere brutal indifference to the rights of others, and short-sighted refusal to look beyond the moment's gain, then the offender, whether union or corporation, must be fought, and if the public sentiment is calloused to the iniquity of either, by just so much, the whole public is damaged."

FIRM DISSOLVED.

The firm of Howard & Noonan, grocers, corner of Main and Ann streets, has been dissolved, Mr. W. Arthur Howard retiring.

Badly Shattered Nerves and Weak Heart. Too Nervous to Sleep or Rest.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

A shattered nervous system nearly always leads to some affection of the heart, especially where the patient's heart is weak from hereditary or other causes. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is not only a great heart regulator, but it is a blood tonic which speedsily corrects and regulates the heart's action, enriches the blood and improves the circulation. It will build you up just as it did Mr. Crawford whose letter follows, and greatly improve your general health:

"I have been so greatly benefited by Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure that I freely recommend them as the best remedies for the diseases they are recommended to cure. When I began taking these medicines I weighed scarcely 120 pounds, my nerves were badly shattered and my heart troubled me a great deal. I had pain in my left arm and shoulder, had difficulty in sleeping on my left side, and frequent smothering spells, and my heart would flutter and palpitate. I could eat scarcely any kind of food without suffering great distress, and was so restless and nervous that I slept little night or day. Now I am a healthy man, my nerves are steady as a die, I sleep well, eat well and weigh 165 pounds. I am happy now and am trying to make back the money I spent for doctors who did me no good while I was ill."—T. R. CRAWFORD, Center, Texas.

(For the Roundabout.) A PRETTY OCCASION.

The prettiest of weddings were solemnized at Mt. Zion Church Wednesday, April 8, 1903, at 5 p. m., when Mr. Allen Stigers, one of the very highly esteemed and cultured young gentlemen of Switzer, and Miss Dianna R. Allison, one of Benson's sweetest and most refined young ladies, were united in happy wedlock by Rev. M. B. Adams, of Frankfort. When all was in readiness Miss Chew, also of Frankfort, struck the wedding march. Then down the aisle came Miss Cordie Allison and Miss Mary Roberts beautifully gowned in white, and carrying white fans. At the same time down the left aisle came Mr. John Allison and Mr. Harry Clark. Next came little Geneva Stucker dressed in white, with green ribbons, and carrying a lovely basket of white carnations and ferns. Then came the bride, beautifully attired in white Paris muslin, ribbon and lace, and long trailing veil. She held a large bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. She was accompanied by her maid of honor, Miss Mary Hearn, of Jett, who wore a lovely green costume and also carried a dainty fan. Down the left aisle came the handsome groom, with best man, Mr. James Stigers. The bride and groom met at the altar and stood beneath a green and white arch, in which was suspended a lovely green and white bell. After the ceremony the organ again pealed forth the march, and the parties left the church by the right aisle. The happy couple left immediately for Lexington, where they remained until Tuesday evening, and arrived at the home of the groom that night. There a host of friends were waiting with hearty congratulations and an elegant supper, consisting of the most choice viands. Both bride and groom are to be congratulated, for they have made such an excellent choice. May your love be an ever-green flower.

Whose leaves never fall or decay. May the throb of your hearts true devotion Grow sweeter and sweeter each day. —NELLY GRAY.

KENTUCKIANS DISCUSS DIFFERENCE IN WHISKY.

What is and what is not "straight" whisky was the subject of serious consideration by the Kentucky Commissioners to the World's Fair yesterday afternoon. R. M. Allen, Secretary of the National Association of State Food Products, was one of the six men who appeared before the Commission to argue the question. The Commission, after hearing the arguments on both sides, decided that, while it is able to see the difference between "straight" whisky and whisky that is not straight, and deploring the fact that it finds no precedent in law that will enable it to take any action, recommended that those who are interested in the question of "straight" whisky, inspect the labels on the bottles before drinking.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a hopeful, bright eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Greene's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists. 1 yr.

"IT WAS SUMMERTIME IN DIXIE LAND."

At present the biggest "Song Hit" in this country, was written by Edwin Kendall, and is being sung nightly in the principal Theatres and Music Halls throughout this country. It is such a great "hit" that the predictions are fair that a million copies of this song will be sold during 1904.

CHORUS.
It was summertime in Dixie, when she whispered soft and low,
That she loved me and I'd won her heart and hand,
When I kissed the fairest flower ever grown in Southern bow'r,
It was summertime in Dixie-land.

Upon receipt of 25 cents in Postage Stamps, a copy of this beautiful Song will be mailed to any address in the United States by The Theatrical Music Supply Co., No. 6, West 28th Street, New York.

GAYLE'S Bedbug Killer

No bedding exists that will not take offense and clear out at once or drop dead on the spot. It is just as effective with roaches, ants, fleas and other insects. Destroys not only the insects but also their eggs. We know of nothing that will take its place and sell it on the money-back-if-you-want-it plan. A large bottle, with brush, costs but 25 CTS.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overrated. The poor patient, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer clime, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 1 yr.

A Physician Cures His Wife of

CONSUMPTION.

One of the leading physicians of the State of Kentucky writes under the date of October 20, 1903, of the remarkable cure which the Dr. Stevens' East India Consumption Cure made for his wife.

"DR. STEVENS-SAYS:

"DEAR SIR:—My wife and I cannot say enough in behalf of your Remedy. Two years ago last spring my wife was confined to her bed. I did all I could for her, and also had four of my best brother physicians called in to attend her. They pronounced her case Consumption, and hopeless. Her lungs were badly diseased, and large abscesses were fast destroying what remained of them. At this time she was so weak that she could hardly speak above a whisper. She also suffered terribly from profuse night sweats. It required every effort on my part to keep her alive.

"I tried everything that I could think of, or my friends recommend, but my efforts were all in vain. The Dr. Stevens' East India Consumption Cure was strongly recommended to me. I determined to make another attempt to find a cure for her, and immediately commenced the use of your Remedy, following the rules explicitly. It was with gratitude that I add that it was but a few weeks before a decided improvement in her symptoms followed, and to-day she is enjoying better health than she has had since childhood. The fact that she has recently passed a rigid examination for life insurance add emphasis to this statement.

"Although I am a practicing physician and have never been an advocate of patent or proprietary medicines, yet I believe that the Dr. Stevens' East India Consumption Cure should have its powerful tonic and curative qualities made known in every reasonable way. The fact that it has restored my wife to her former health and saved her to feel family after fourteen years of suspense and sickness, causes me to feel that it is a duty which I owe to other sufferers, to make this acknowledgment of the wonderful cure which this Remedy made in my wife's case.

"I feel that I must request you to withhold my name, but you may feel at liberty to refer anyone to me who wishes to make further inquiry regarding your treatment for Consumption, etc."

The Dr. Stevens' East India Consumption Cure is put up in packages lasting one month. The price for a single package is $4.00. No free samples. Thirty years of critical test and over one hundred thousand grateful patients prove its positive value in all diseases of the lungs, catarrh, asthma, nervous diseases, etc.
